Improve yourself. Improve your team.
Improve your organization. Make magic!

Join us at our 2019 Leadership Seminar for a morning with veteran former Disney executive Dan Cockerell for compelling insight on propelling you and your team to greatness.

Following a successful 26-year career at the Walt Disney Company, Dan Cockerell is one of Orlando's leading voices on how to develop a purpose-driven culture and establish an environment where your employees can thrive and deliver stellar results while feeling confident, respected, trusted and empowered. An inspiring storyteller, Dan combines practical management techniques and engaging real life examples drawn from his years of experience leading a 12,000-person team to consistently create magic for millions of people every day of the year.

Proceeds benefit Dave's House programs to end homelessness for individuals with serious mental illness and co-occurring disabilities.

Dan Cockerell has a passion for developing people through coaching, inspirational and insightful speeches. He has held various management and executive operations roles at the Walt Disney World Resort, both in the theme parks and resort hotels, and was the sixth executive to hold the position of Vice President, Magic Kingdom since the park opened in 1971. He has been a keynote speaker for the Disney Institute for 18 years. He focuses on leadership and management practices, drawing upon his career with pertinent examples and inspiring storytelling.

We love hosting this annual educational seminar because it's a way to share information from incredible thought leaders that helps our supporters improve themselves, while supporting our efforts. Please join us!
